

Trophy Export Requirements – Namibia

1. Legal Requirements for Trophy Export

To export a hunting trophy from Namibia, the following permits and documents are required:

- A valid original hunting permit issued in Namibia.
- A veterinary certificate to verify the health status of the trophy.
- An export permit from the Ministry of Environment, Forestry, and Tourism (MEFT).
- An import permit from the receiving country, with additional requirements depending on the species.
- For CITES-listed species, a CITES export permit is required, which can only be obtained if a CITES import permit from the destination country has already been issued.

2. Documentation Requirements

- Detailed measurements of the trophy, especially for species like leopard and cheetah.
- Photographs of the animal, required in certain cases to verify species and compliance.
- Proof of legal origin, demonstrating that the hunt was conducted according to Namibian hunting regulations.

3. Special Considerations for Certain Species

- CITES Appendix I species (e.g., leopard, cheetah, elephant, rhinoceros):
  - Subject to stricter regulations and may require additional documentation and verification.
  - Elephant and rhinoceros trophies require detailed measurements of tusks/horns for export approval.

4. Trophy Preparation & Taxidermy

- Trophies exported to the European Union must be cleaned according to EU regulations.
- Hides require a minimum of 14 days to dry before shipment.
- Taxidermy processing times range from 4 to 12 months, depending on the services performed.
- Improperly prepared skins may result in hair slippage, and taxidermy providers are not responsible for such issues.

5. Shipping & Packaging Fees

- Packing costs are 20% of the total order value or a minimum of $80 per client (dip/pack/skull on shields).

- For mounted trophies, packing costs are 10% of the total value, excluding crating fees.
- A $75 administration fee is charged for handling paperwork.

6. Where to Apply for Permits

Hunters should contact the Ministry of Environment, Forestry, and Tourism (MEFT) in Namibia for all necessary permits and documentation.
